Andrew Fearing Collection

Collection 105

Biographical Information

Andrew Fearing was born in Columbus, Ohio, on February 5, 1907. After completing college at Emmanuel Missionary College and Washington Missionary College Fearing entered denominational work in 1932 as a teacher in the mountains of western Virginia. Through the years he served the denomination as a pastor, departmental leader, and church administrator in Virginia, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, California, Nevada, Utah, Georgia, and Tennessee, and finally for 17 years as an associate secretary of the Ministerial Association of the General Conference. He died on June 6, 1981, in Florida.

Scope

The collection consists of a part of Fearing ministry record, a few of his writings, notes in his Bible, and two biographical documents.

Arrangement

The folders are numbered on the basis of topical sequence. See the following inventory.

Provenance

The Andrew Fearing Collection was donated in 1983, by his wife, Bertha A. Fearing.
