Biographical Information

Born into a Seventh-day Adventist family from Hennepin County, Minnesota, author, educator, and historian Emmett K. Vande Vere received his education from denominational and public schools. He graduated from Maplewood Academy in Minnesota in 1922 and earned a B.A. degree from Union College in Nebraska in 1927. From 1927 to 1947, Vande Vere taught at several Adventist academies in the Midwest and West. He earned a M.A. in history from the University of Nebraska in 1942 and a Ph.D. in history from the University of Washington in 1948. From 1947 to 1964, Dr. Vande Vere served as a staff member and chairman of the history department at Emmanuel Missionary College (which later became Andrews University). He retired from full-time teaching in 1971. Fifteen years of research and writing culminated with the publication of The Wisdom Seekers in 1972. Dr. Vande Vere has met and served the many church leaders and educators that fill the pages of his book. As a young man, Vande Vere listened to campmeeting sermons by Arthur G. Daniels, William A. Spicer, and Millian L. Andreasen. Attendance at sessions of the General Conference brought him into contact with J. L. McElhany, William H. Branson, T. L. Oswald, and other significant administrators. He worked under Emmanuel Missionary College (Andrews University) administrators Alvin W. Johnson, Percy Christian, Floyd O. Rittenhouse, and Richard Hammill. An authority in the area of Seventh-day Adventist church history, Dr. Vande Vere frequently lectures about the Adventist heritage he knows so well.

Scope

Dr. Emmett K. Vande Vere of Berrien Springs, Michigan, donated the papers of several Emmanuel Missionary College (Andrews University) administrators to the Adventist Heritage Center at James White Library, Andrews University in April 1973. Dr. Vande Vere collected and used these materials to write his book, The Wisdom Seekers (1972). The collection contains the correspondence, diaries, papers, manuscripts, articles, pamphlets, legal instruments, notations, photographs, and miscellany of George Royal Avery, Sydney Brownsberger, Rowland H. Harris, Herman O. Olson, and others and the historical materials collected by Dr. E. K. Vande Vere on the campus of Andrews University and those received from the Southern Publishing Association, Nashville, Tennessee. The photographs are reposited in the "Photographs File" of the Adventist Heritage Center. Pamphlets included in this collection have been catalogued and placed in the pamphlet section of the Adventist Heritage Center. All items of the George Royal Avery papers have been copied (typescript, carbon copy) by Dr. E. K. Vande Vere from the originals of Mrs. Vesta Keeney, East Lansing, Michigan.

Arrangement

Where possible the material has been kept in the arrangement made by Dr. E. K. Vande Vere himself. The envelopes and folders are referred to as "env" and "fld." They are numbered on the basis of chronological, alphabetical, or topical sequence. To call for items in the collection, use "C 4" with box and folder number as indicated in the following inventory. Citations to the collection or items in the collection should include the following: Dr. E. K. Vande Vere Collection, Adventist Heritage Center, James White Library, Andrews University.

Use

All users of this collection will complete the “Application To Use Unpublished Records,” and observe the regulations specified in the “Patron’s Agreement” and “Researcher’s Code of Conduct.” All records in this collection are open and available for research. Suggested citation for this collection:

George Royal Avery Papers

George Royal Avery (1855-1935) was a student at Battle Creek College from 1875-1880. His papers here have been copied (typescript and carbon copy) by Dr. E. K. Vande Vere from the originals at that time belonging to Mrs. Vesta Avery Keeney of East Lansing, Michigan, daughter of George Royal Avery. Those original papers are now here, having been given to the Adventist Heritage Center by Mrs. Keeney on February 22, 1977; see Collection 7. For more details, see the thesis, "George Royal Avery," by D. C. Beardsell (G.S. Th B368) and The Wisdom Seekers (LD 171 .A42V3).
